

Sunspot Concerts at the Lyceum

Red Molly

Friday, Sept. 17, 2010, 8 PM

$20 advance/$23 door

On a July evening in 2004, at their campsite at the Falcon Ridge Folk Festival, the three women who would become Red Molly harmonized for the very first time. As they sang their campmates off to sleep, they knew they had stumbled into something extraordinary. Audiences seem to agree. Since that summer night, Red Molly has consistently brought concert-goers to their feet with stunning three-part harmonies, crisp musicianship and a warm, engaging stage presence. Laurie MacAllister, Abbie Gardner and newest member Molly Venter have a lot of fun on stage, and it's contagious.

Red Molly's Sunspot show will be one of the first Red Molly shows with Molly, who will be joining Laurie MacAllister and Abbie Gardner as Carolann Solebello leaves the group.

The Boston Globe says: "Everything Red Molly sings is delivered with tick-tight arrangements, crystalline vocals, and caramel harmonies. But what is most striking is the ardor they bring to everything they do, whether snuggling into the sweet parochialism of an old spiritual, or the gritty pathos of a Gillian Welch tune. They come on less like stars strutting for their minions than pals sharing their favorite songs." www.redmolly.com

Sunday, Aug. 29. Join Danny Knicely, Nate Leath, Aimee Curl and Bert Carlson for the release of their new CD, The Melody Lingers On, at the Old Stone School in Hillsboro, Virginia. Tickets available on the Sunspot website.

About the Concerts

Sunspot showcases musicians from the United States and around the globe, representing all styles of traditional and contemporary folk music. Sunspot shows feature musicians who often perform as part of larger groups in larger venues, who have an independent career after leaving another group or who are just beginning their careers. Each show is presented in an intimate setting that allows the performers and audiences to enjoy a close connection not possible in larger venues.

The concerts take place in Old Town Alexandria. Sunspot's primary venue is the 130-seat Lecture Hall at The Lyceum, Alexandria's city museum, which lends its historic atmosphere to the presentation of traditional music. With no seat more than six rows from the stage, The Lyceum provides an ideal meeting place for artists and audiences to share a unique musical experience.

Ordering Tickets

Order tickets through the Sunspot web site: www.sunspotpro.com. We are a volunteer organization, so we do not have a box-office staff to take orders. If you cannot use the web site, you can purchase advance tickets at any Sunspot show, or call 800 404-9049 to request that we contact you by phone.

To maintain the security of your personal information, we use a ticketing agency for on-line ticket orders. The ticketing agency adds a service charge to each ticket purchase. The service charge is paid to the ticketing agency and is not part of our ticket price
